

Polya / Calculus Tutor Application

Mathematics Department

2019-2020

General Description

Polya Tutors

Polya Tutors are responsible for one-on-one tutoring of Math 108 and Math 143 students, and occasionally Math 144 students. Polya Tutors assist students in successfully completing the course material by answering questions, checking students' notebook work, asking questions to help students solve problems on their own, proctoring online tests, assisting instructors with proctoring and collection of written tests, filing testing scratch paper, opening and closing the Polya Mathematic Center, and other duties as assigned by their supervisor or director.

Calculus Tutors

Calculus Tutors are responsible for one-on-one and small group tutoring of Math 160, Math 170, and Math 175 students. Calculus Tutors assist students in successfully completing the course material by answering questions and leading students in such a way as to help them solve problems on their own.

Requirements

To be considered for selection as a Polya or Calculus Tutor you must:

- Have demonstrated the ability to tutor students in mathematics
- Be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate at the University of Idaho
